

Water Operator Exam Prep

July 29, 2025 • Pocatello, ID

This training is designed to support entry-level drinking water operators to prepare for Idaho's water operator certification exams. Through this course, operators will learn about source water characteristics, treatment methods, operator safety and basic operator math. Additionally, the six-hour training will overview study resources, test taking tips and certification requirements.

0.6 Idaho Drinking Water Continuing Education Units awarded for attending. Certificates will be available through your profile.
