

Assisting Your Community to Prepare and Recover from Disasters

A three-webinar series • August 23, 25 & 27, 2021

Learn why disaster recovery is an important service model for housing counseling agencies; the potential effects of disasters on communities, agencies and counselors, and how housing counseling plays a key role in disaster recovery. Gain a broad understanding of agency disaster preparation and recovery roles, including pre-disaster agency planning, identifying and collaborating with key stakeholders, and recognizing opportunities for disaster recovery housing counseling services. Get the latest on Disaster Recovery during a pandemic and what funds/resources are available to communities.

Scholarships are available for the first 75 registrants. You must work for a HUD approved counseling agency to receive a scholarship. Use scholarship code HCOE.
