

Credit and Budgeting During COVID-19

A two-webinar series • October 20 & 22, 2020

With consumer debt and mortgage payments being deferred by creditors, how does all of this affect payment history and credit scores? Having an understanding of the final outcome will help counselors walk their clients through the choices available and make informed decisions. This course is designed to assist counselors to explain credit reports and help the client with the steps to take to improve their current situation. Attendees will learn how credit and budgeting work together to reduce debt and generate a positive credit report providing better financial opportunities in the future.

Scholarships are available for all non-profit and quasi-governmental agencies.
