

Helping your Community Prepare for and Recover from Disasters

A two-webinar series • October 27 & 29, 2020

Learn why disaster preparation is important for housing counseling; the potential effects of disasters on communities, agencies and counselors, and the six areas in which housing counseling has played a key role in disaster recovery. Gain a broad understanding of agency disaster preparation and recovery roles, including pre-disaster planning, identifying and collaborating with key stakeholders, and recognizing opportunities for disaster recovery housing counseling services.

Scholarships are available for all non-profit and quasi-governmental agencies.

When: October 27 & 29, 2020 • 10:00 a.m.– 12:00 p.m. (Pacific Time)
