

Student Loan Debt and the Effects of COVID-19

A two-webinar series • November 4 & 6, 2020

Student loan debt payments are a major issue that COVID-19 has made even more complicated. Participants will learn what options are available to reduce or defer payments. Counselors will learn ways to provide assistance to families to make informed decisions before they take on student loan debt. We will address the differences between private and government student loans and the key steps in working with servicers.

Scholarships are available for all non-profit and quasi-governmental agencies.
